

Plant Cell Biology

Research Centre

Research Programs
About the Centre
News & Events
Opportunities
Contact
Search
Links
Home

Metabolomics Australia

Metabolomics Australia (MA) is a government funded national metabolomics service centre founded in 2007 and is the first high throughput Metabolomics facility in Australia [www.metabolomics.org.au].

MA services are focused on all areas of technology for small molecule analysis with the aim of providing access to world leading advances and technology for academic and private Industry.

Victorian Centre for Plant Functional Genomics

The VCPFG provides researchers with the latest platform technologies required in plant functional genomics to benefit the AgriFood sector .

Created: January 2004 by svgdesign.com.au

Last modified: October 23, 2008

Authorised by: Prof. Antony Bacic & Assoc. Prof. Ed Newbigin

Access: Open

Copyright © 2004 The University of Melbourne.

Maintainer: Chris O'Brien, School of Botany

